  - B. We should always have something to speak in all the meetings as a freewill offering to God and to the attendants—1 Cor. 14:26:
    1. Before coming to the meeting, we should prepare ourselves for the meeting with something of the Lord, either through our experience of Him or through our enjoyment of His word and our fellowship with Him in prayer—cf. Rev. 1:20.
    2. After coming into the meeting, we need not wait, and should not wait, for inspiration; we should exercise our spirit and use our trained mind to function in presenting what we have prepared to the Lord for His glory and satisfaction and to the attendants for their benefit—their enlightenment, nourishment, and building up—1 Cor. 14:31-32.

- 1. Christ's dimensions are the dimensions of the universe—cf. Col. 1:16-17.
  - 2. To apprehend the dimensions of Christ, we need all the saints.
  - 3. Our experience of Christ must become three-dimensional, like a cube:

    - b. Both in the tabernacle and in the temple, the Holy of Holies was a cube of ten and twenty cubits respectively—Exo. 26:2-8; 1 Kings 6:20.
    - c. Christ is the universal cube, and the church life today is also a cube.
    - d. Eventually, the entire New Jerusalem will be the Holy of Holies as an eternal cube, twelve thousand stadia in three dimensions—Rev. 21:16.
- VI. The issue of our enjoyment of the all-inclusive riches of Christ as the good land is the church as the temple, the dwelling place of God, and as the city, the kingdom of God—Eph. 2:21-22:
- A. The land with its temple and city is the center of God's plan:
